

straight talk from
Tony Campolo & Shane Claiborne
on Simple, Just Living

An intensely personal dialog about voluntary simplicity. A pointed-yet-hopeful DVD relevant to the yearnings of today's Christians.

"Two of the most important voices of the 21st Century church. This is a conversation you do NOT want to miss."
– Jim Wallis, Author of God's Politics & President of Sojourners/Call to Renewal

"This video should challenge anybody with a heart."
– Aiden Enns, Geez magazine, BuyNothingChristmas.org

"In an ocean of self-indulgent consumerism, an island of sanity and realism. A powerful resource in the move toward well-being."
– Walter Brueggemann, Columbia Theological Seminary

"Theologically sound, intellectually enlightening, and morally engaging."
– Justo L. Gonzalez, Author of The Story of Christianity

"Practical, creative ways you can live more simply in ways that make a real difference for our poorest neighbors and God's good creation."
– Tom Sine, Author of The Mustard Seed Conspiracy

"Profound and humorous, full of touching stories, compelling testimonials and prophetic music."
– John de Graaf, Co-producer and Co-author of Affluenza: The All-Consuming Epidemic

Tony Campolo – author, speaker, humanitarian, educator, founder and president of EAPE (Evangelicals for the Promotion of Education)

Shane Claiborne – speaker, activist, author of The Irresistible Revolution, and co-founder of The Simple Way community
