

Sometimes, when we scan the room
—and ourselves—for You

we see You...seeing us!

Sometimes, when we hold each other
we feel You enfolding us.

Sometimes, when we sing
we hear Your voice.

Sometimes, when we preach
we hear Your Word.

Sometimes, when we cry
we taste Your tears.

Please, God...always dance with us.

Amen.

—Martha Barr

—Martha Barr wrote this prayer as a benediction during the 2001 summer conference of the Baptist Peace Fellowship of North America. The art on this page is by Rebecca Ward, and depicts Jessica Sehested, a liturgical dancer for many BPFNA summer conferences.

(from the cover of Baptist Peacemaker, Volume 21 Number 3, Fall 2001)

